

The fifth presenter in our series Who's Who at the 2009 OMLTA Spring Conference is Carlos Soler Montes. Mr. Soler Montes will be presenting session Aa4/Ab4 "Spanish International Exams: A Global Recognition of Spanish Language Proficiency"

Carlos Soler Montes
Coordinator
Instituto Cervantes, Calgary

Carlos Soler Montes holds a degree in Spanish Philology from the Universidad Complutense in Madrid and a Masters in Hispanic Studies from the University of Connecticut. He is currently working on his Ph.D. thesis on Spanish linguistics. He has worked as a Spanish instructor for various institutions in Spain, United States and Canada, and has worked as both an editor and author of learning materials for various Spanish publishers. Since 2005 works for the Instituto Cervantes, an international organization created by the government of Spain, which focuses on the teaching of Spanish and dissemination of Spanish language and Hispanic cultures. In 2006 he was appointed to the Instituto Cervantes of Calgary, a centre created in collaboration with the Department of French, Italian and Spanish at the University of Calgary.

Aa4

Spanish Gr. 4-12

Spanish International Exams: A Global Recognition of Spanish Language Proficiency

In this session, we will analyze the advantages of implementing the Spanish International Exams in Spanish Language with culture programs in Ontario. This workshop will be delivered in Spanish.