B5Core French, Elementary*Engage, Excite, Enhance! Using Technology to Support Cross-Curricular Learning in the FSL classroom

Chris Fraser, Algonquin Lakeshore Catholic District School Board

The changes in curriculum standards have placed a growing emphasis on the role of Core French teachers. French teachers face the challenge of maintaining interest in the subject as well as providing students with the necessary skills they need to succeed. We will discuss how French teachers can best resolve these issues by integrating both technology and a cross-curricular approach in their lessons.

B6Core French, General*Where are the Boys?

Maria Gauthier, Upper Canada College

This workshop will discuss some of the challenges facing teaching a second language to boys. Language Programs across the country are struggling to keep their boys interested in language learning, which continues to be dominated by girls. This presentation will examine some of the reasons for these gender differences (neurological, cognitive, affective, social, and pedagogical) and propose boy-friendly approaches for keeping boys engaged in their language studies and improving boys' relationship with language learning.

B7Core French, Elementary*Intégrer la culture dans la classe de FSL

Christine Pauzé, Waterloo Catholic District School Board

Comment utiliser la culture pour mieux connaître nos élèves et les motiver à apprendre la culture des autres. On veut ouvrir l'esprit de l'apprenant en ce qui concerne les différences entre les peuples.

Aprender a aprender español: recursos memotécnicos para el aprendizaj de español.

(Learning how to learn Spanish: mnemotechnic resources to learn Spanish.)

Laura Socorro Leon, York University – Glendon College

En el estudio de un nuevo idioma tan complicado como el español, para evitar que por la falta de uso este termine olvidándose por completo, lo realmente importante no es lo qué se aprende sino de que manera se aprende. Para garantizar que ese vocabulario nuevo y esas estructuras que hemos aprendido no terminen por desaparecer, lo interesante sería ver de qué manera podemos relacionarlas con algo: con otro idioma, con imágenes, con situaciones o historias reales o inventadas, por poner algunos ejemplos. Aplicando técnicas mnemotécnicas, el aprendizaje se hace incluso más divertido y no importa cuantos años pasen siempre podremos volver a recordarlo.

1, 2, 3,...Préparation, Compétition, Félicitations...Allons-y!

Colette Fraser, Sudbury Catholic District School Board

L'emphase dans le nouveau curriculum du FSL est sur la communication orale. Quelle belle occasion d'insérer cette composante dans votre curriculum. Le concours d'art oratoire, parrainé par CPF (Canadian Parents for French) et l'AOPLV/OMLTA, est une compétition provinciale annuelle qui a lieu au Collège Glendon à Toronto. Ce concours fournit une opportunité par excellence pour les élèves en FSL d'améliorer leur cheminement en langue expressive et en même temps offre aux enseignants une occasion de s'épanouir comme évaluateur. Venez découvrir a) les démarches à suivre pour organiser un concours local; b) la procédure pour aider vos élèves à se rendre au concours provincial; c) une occasion de vivre un renouveau à titre de prof de langue seconde. Un exercice pratique de révision de texte écrit par un concurrent est prévu.

International Languages

Buon giorno. ¿Cómo estás? Bem, obrigado. Instructional strategies and resources for International Languages.

Josie Bagnato-Silva, Steven Silva, Toronto Catholic District School Board

Do you find yourself searching for new ideas and resources for your International Languages courses? This workshop will focus on effective strategies and resources for teaching Italian, Portuguese and Spanish. Participants will have the opportunity to experience, "hands-on", a variety of oral communication, reading, writing and cultural activities. It is the goal of this workshop that participants return to their schools with additional approaches and resources for teaching International Languages. A complete package of ready-to-use activities in each language discussed will be provided to participants. Join us for a differentiated learning experience!

F3Core French, Elementary*Using Energizers to get your FSL class speaking and moving !!*Savitri Manmohansing, Hilda Shirdel, Peel District School Board

This is a continuation of E3. You must also register for E3 Do you find it difficult to get your students to speak in French? Looking for some active ideas to engage your Core French students in oral communication? Join us for 2 hours of energizers that will give you practical solutions for your FSL classes? In this session, you will be exposed to oral activities that will give your students confidence when speaking French. These activities come from the TRIBES approach, and are geared to create a co-operative and inclusive classroom environment.

F4International Languages*Use of technology in the second/third language classroom*Dr. Biagio Aulino, Eunice Yu, Yan Hong Ren, Terence Tam, Dr. Kataryzna Kasztenna

York Catholic District School Board

This workshop is designed for International Languages teachers who would like to examine the benefits of using technology in the IL classroom. The focus will be on Chinese, Spanish, Japanese and Polish language courses at the secondary level. Participants will receive useful tips on integrating technology in their lessons.

F5Core French/Immersion, Elementary*Drama and Reading, A Perfect Fit*Jacqueline Kelly, District School Board of Niagara

This hands-on workshop will take you through various motivating drama activities which will allow students to better understand the story's plot and characters and further invite them to extend and expand each. Rubrics and Differentiated Instruction will be included.

F6Core French, Elementary*Not All Cognates Are Faux Amis*Michele Weber, Toronto District School Board

This session is based on a literature review and activities prepared for a Masters Course in second language vocabulary acquisition. It introduces activities and practical suggestions for ways of using cognates in Core French classes.

A Differentiated Classroom

Tabatha Smith, Renfrew County District School Board

This workshop will focus on how a French classroom can be changed from a regular classroom to a "differentiated" classroom. For less than the cost of a Smartboard! Teachers will be walked through a pilot project at Arnprior District High School where teachers have rid their classrooms of desks for an eight station differentiated learning environment which includes: portable DVD players, laptop notebooks, MP3 players, a reading station, a writing station, a collaborative creative station and a Teacher-centred station with an overhead projector. Teachers will leave the workshop with a cost breakdown of setting up the classroom, a detailed outline of how to move students through the stations, unit themes with ideas for useful resources, and best of all-ideas of how to approach the principal for funding.

Your Students Are Changing! Are You? Let's Engage and Differentiate

Najwa Farha Chalabi, Toronto Catholic District School Board

This presentation is about redefining one of the missing links of the students' engagement in what the teacher is teaching. It aims to combine the virtual reality of the student to the classroom reality. It is a bridge between: on one side, where students are, where they are heading to and how and what "language" they are using; and on the other side, where teachers need to be. Enter tomorrow's classroom today with differentiated instruction and assistive technology for all students including special education and autistic students.

El Marco Común Europeo de Referencia de las Lenguas: Aprendizaje, Enseñanza, Evaluación. The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, Teaching, Assessment.

Jorge Luengo, Education Office, Embassy of Spain

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, Teaching, Assessment, abbreviated as CEFR, is a guideline used to describe achievements of learners of foreign languages across Europe. This presentation tries to describe what the CEFR is and how it can be useful, not only for teachers, but also for speakers of foreign languages, to improve the recognition of language qualifications and to develop communication skills and, therefore, cooperation between different countries.

Lighting the Spark: Engaging Students through Active Learning

Linda Shaunessy, RK PUBLISHING INC.

How can we inspire senior students to love reading in French, and entice them to read more? How can we help them use what they've read to learn and progress? Using Trésor Senior, the new resource from RK Publishing (to be published in March 2010), participants will be shown how to engage students' interest in reading and lead them to become active readers. Techniques for relating reading to students' lives and for integrating reading with oral communication, writing, and technology will be discussed. Participants will be shown how to easily enable active learning and differentiated instruction through reading.
