

2010 SPRING CONFERENCE

2010 AOPLV CONGRES DU PRINTEMPS

THURSDAY, MARCH 25

BLOCK "A"

1:30 P.M. – 4:00 P.M.

A1 General – Administrators, Language Consultants, Curriculum Leaders
From Profile to Language Portfolio – A CASLT three year update
Laura Hermans and Nicole Thibault, CASLT

This working session will feature the key recommendations from the Profile and Pathways Report, and lead into an update on the CASLT Portfolio for Languages in Teacher Education pilot project. The second part will feature an update on the various pilot projects underway across Canada related to the Common Framework of Reference and Portfolio for Languages. The overarching goal of this session is for all L2 stakeholders to work towards a common vision – directions to best support, lead, and guide the implementation of the profile, framework and portfolio in a pan-Canadian context.

A2 General – Administrators, Language consultants, Curriculum Leaders
Open Space Forum: What a Concept!
Pete Cecile, Greater Essex County District School Board

In this workshop, participants will experience the Open Space Forum model. This unique way of presenting a major theme allows participants to truly design the workshop to tailor their needs. It has been described as the ultimate DI workshop for participants. It has been successful with FSL teachers, mentors, new teachers and students. Participants will leave with all the knowledge and resources necessary to run their own Open Space.

A3 General – Administrators, Language consultants, Curriculum Leaders
Repenser l'évaluation à l'aide du CECR
Enrica Piccardo, University of Toronto, OISE

L'atelier présentera les concepts-clés du CECR et leur lien avec l'évaluation. En particulier il questionnera la notion de compétence et ses implications en didactique des langues secondes/étrangères.

A4 General – Administrators, Language consultants
Venez partager vos projets du renouvellement de FSL
Dann Crandall, Hamilton-Wentworth Catholic District School Board

Do you have best practices, ideas and or resources to share? This forum will give school boards the opportunity to share the fruits of this funding. Apportez vos ressources et soyez prêts à partager.
